The Lighthouse

Volume 28 Issue 2 February 2018

The day when all the candy disappears from the shelves and the flowers are gone from the florist shops will soon be here. The restaurants love this day. It's special to them. All the sweethearts are romancing that special someone. More chocolate and roses are sold on this day than any other day.

I know it may seem a little odd but think of Valentine's Day in relation to Jesus. This is a great day to reflect on how much He loves you. Jesus died for you. It's a great day to let loved ones know that God loves them as well.

Wherever you shop you'll always see an abundance of hearts. The chocolate is wrapped in beautiful red or pink heart-shaped boxes. Well, fifty years ago I gave my "heart" to the "Rose of Sharon," a name given to Jesus. Every day is Valentine's Day to me because He makes me feel loved and special. This year be sure to let Jesus know that He is the love of your life. Have a happy Valentine's Day.
